

Indiana Department of Education
SUPPORTING STUDENT SUCCESS

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Indiana School District Personnel

FROM: Jennifer Hicks, Ph.D., Science Curriculum Specialist

DATE: December 28, 2010

SUBJECT: Indiana Science Initiative and Science Textbook Adoption

The Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) in collaboration with Indiana Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics (I-STEM) Resource Network with the support of Eli Lilly and Company will be holding Regional Meetings to showcase the Indiana Science Initiative in January and February at locations across the state. The purpose of these meetings is to educate district personnel about the Initiative and how they can join and adopt the instructional materials chosen and managed by the Initiative. Please see the attached flier for dates and locations of the informational meetings.
